SUBJECT: Temporary Closures of Pickwick Auxiliary Lock, Tennessee River 206.7

Starting on Monday, 23 July 2007, Pickwick Auxiliary will undergo a series of daily temporary closure. The lock will close each morning around 6am and reopen around 5pm each evening. The closures are necessary to allow Corps of Engineers floating plant access to the lock chamber. Floating plant will be assisting with installation of the new tow haulage unit. The lock will return to its prior level of availability around 5pm on Thursday, 2 August.
