

News Release

US Army Corps Of Engineers®
Nashville District
P.O. Box 1070
Nashville, TN 37202-1070

06-13

Release No.

IMMEDIATE

For Release: March 27, 2006

Bill Peoples bill.peoples@us.army.mil

Contact:

(615) 736-7834

Phone:

CAMPING SEASON IS HERE AGAIN

Nashville, Tenn. (March 27, 2006) — Spring is finally here and it is time to enjoy the outdoors. Old Hickory Lake offers a variety of recreational opportunities. Family recreation such as fishing, camping, picnicking, and swimming can be enjoyed at various sites on Old Hickory Lake. Old Hickory Lake has two great campgrounds that offer electric hookups, restrooms, dump station, launching ramps, laundry, potable water, showers, and playgrounds.

Cages Bend Campground:

Location: Gallatin
Number of Camp Sites: 43
Open: March 31-October 30
Fees: $19-$23

Cedar Creek Campground:

Location: Mt. Juliet
Number of Camp Sites: 59
Open: March 31-October 30
Fees: $19-$23

To reserve a campsite go to the National Recreation Reservation Service (NRRS) website at www.reserveusa.com, or call toll free at 1-877-444-6777.

Day Use Fee Areas:

Old Hickory Lake has three day use fee areas located at Cedar Creek, Laguardo, and Old Hickory Beach. Each area offers great swim beaches, picnic tables, grills, restrooms, and launching ramps.

The daily cost is $4 per vehicle. Annual day use passes can be purchased for $30 at the Old Hickory Lake Resource Office in Hendersonville. For more information on the day use areas and campgrounds, call the Resource Manager's Office at 615-822-4846.